

Tracy Perina

Born in South Carolina, Tracy Perina's family moved to North Carolina when she was 11 years old. Graduating from West Forsyth High School in 1984 she went to work as a bank teller, got married in 1989 and shortly after started a family.

Tracy has been a devoted homemaker since becoming a mother and enjoys all aspects of taking care of home and family. She and her husband Charles have two adult sons. After discovering that her oldest son had a learning disability in reading she decided that homeschooling would give him the one-on-one attention that he needed. She went on to homeschool both children for 5 years before her oldest went back into the public school system in 9th grade and graduated in 2010. Her youngest son graduated from homeschool in 2013.

She has a passion for politics; other interests include bible-study, walking, cooking and reading.

Her and her family live in Raleigh and enjoy spending time with each other at their beach home in Carolina Beach, NC as well as spending time with their beloved Labrador Retriever, Baxter.
